

Sally Titus Deputy Director

Sally Titus has served in many roles with DHS since joining the agency in 1979. She has served as a Bureau Chief of Community Services and as Division Administrator in the former Division of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities. She served as Interim Department Director from January-March of 2003 and again from August-October of 2008. She has served as a Deputy Director since 1989 (Deputy Director of Services 1989, Deputy Director Field 1999, Deputy Director of Services 2009) .

She provides the department with direction in policy and program development, strategic planning and fiscal management. Throughout her career she has served on many committees, councils and workgroups which aim to improve the delivery of services in Iowa.

Sally graduated from the University of Iowa in 1974 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English. She received a Master's in Public Administration from Drake University in 1984.